[INTRODUCTION]

Welcome to Desertmartin for round three of the 2017 Thor British Youth Nationals Championship.

Having not been included in the schedule last year, I am pleased to bring the championship back to Northern Ireland again, and we expect it to be one of the highlights of the year.

As we hit the halfway point of the 2017 series, there is still everything to play for; battles to be won or lost, and achievements to be gained. The championships are all close, which just goes to show how well the riders are racing this year and it has been a pleasure to see some first class competition from our two rounds already at Culham and Brampton.

Desertmartin is one of few tracks that has full planning permission for year-round use. 'The Desert', as it is affectionately known, has been developed over the years and is classed as one of the best tracks in the world by many riders. It has played host to many races from club level to national and world championship events including the FIM World Motocross Championship, Maxxis British Motocross Championship and of course the Thor British Youth Nationals, while the sandy terrain certainly creates some memorable racing and it is of course a great experience for the riders.

Part of our priority at RHL Activities is to encourage new riders into the Thor British Youth Nationals Championship and we are pleased to say this year that we have seen many new faces around the paddock. We hope that both those that have joined us and those that have been us with for some years are enjoying the championship so far. I am looking forward to a great weekend of battles at this iconic track and I'd like to wish all of the riders the best of luck.

I hope you all have a great weekend here at Desertmartin. See you on the start line.

INTERVIEW

HOWARD WAINWRIGHT

DYNAMITE WAINWRIGHT TALKS ABOUT HIS SEASON SO FAR IN THE BRITISH YOUTH NATIONAL OPEN CLASS

With the Thor British Youth National Championship heading into round three at Desertmartin, it's a good time to catch up with a rider who is enjoying a strong season so far.

Howard Wainwright, who competes in the Open Class at the BYN, is currently leading his category as we head into the halfway point of the year. RHL Activities caught up with Howard to see how things are going back at base.

Round two saw you walk away with second overall for the weekend, how did you feel after the event at Brampton?

"Brampton was an overall good weekend for me. I walked away with second overall and extended my points lead in the Championship. There were lots of positives and negatives that I took away from Brampton and I'm working on improving for Desertmartin."

Brampton was a tough sand track with some decent ruts showing up throughout the day's racing that provided some great battles for us to see. What were your thoughts on the circuit?

"The track was awesome for me, the natural hillside layout makes for a superb circuit. The track builders did a mega job of getting it prepped for a great weekend of racing. The rain made it a bit tough on the Sunday, but overall for me it was a good weekend."

You're currently leading the British Youth National Open Class Championship, how does it feel for you?

"I'm very happy and proud to be leading the Championship so far, but of course there is plenty more racing to go until its over. Having the points lead does give me a boost in confidence for the remaining rounds, but as always it to does add to the pressure and nerves of wanting to finish up as the British Youth National Open Champion for 2017."

Desertmartin is the next stop of the championship after a year off the calendar, how are you feeling for the 'Desert' and are you getting any training and practicing in prior to the event?

"I've never had the chance to ride the famous Desertmartin track, but I am very much looking forward to being there in a few weeks' time." Wainwright continues "Leading up to the event I will be continuing my weekly routine of training, riding and putting in the effort to keep getting good results for the rest of the year."

Why do you enjoy racing the Thor British Youth National Championship?

"I've always enjoyed racing the Thor British Youth Nationals, as it makes for great racing as there is a lot of competition throughout all classes. The venues that are chosen also never seem to disappoint."

Finally, how did you get into motocross?

"I got into motocross because it's a family sport and both my dad and brother did and still continue to race to date, along with other family members. It was only natural that I grew up riding into the sport which I did from the age of three and I have never looked back."

If you would like to see Howard in action along with all our other riders throughout the classes from junior 65cc to open, then why not pop along to Desertmartin on 20th & 21st May or one of our other rounds. More information can be found at rhlactivities.com

BRAMPTON BATTLE

BIG BATTLES AT BRAMPTON FOR THE THOR BRITISH YOUTH NATIONALS

The last round of the Thor British Youth Nationals was an exciting weekend of racing at Brampton, Cumbria for round two of the championship where Wal Beaney, Vinnie Guthrie, Dominic Lancett, Rossi Beard and Jed Etchells took the overall honours.

The junior 65cc class provided some superb racing to watch across both days. Saturday saw Ollie Colmer take both moto wins with round one winner's Wal Beaney taking second, however the young-gun had his eyes on keeping the title lead going into the next round and Sunday saw some breath-taking moments with both Beaney and Colmer battling it out hard. Beaney walked away with the weekend overall after sweeping all three motos on Sunday to retain his championship lead, while Colmer, Keelan Hope, McKenzie Marshall and Roan Delaney rounded out the top five positions.

The top five riders in the Small Wheel 85cc class, Vinnie Guthrie, Alfie Jones, Raife Broadley, Oliver Barr and Bailey Johnston, had it pinned throughout the five motos in Cumbria, with some truly exciting battles during the weekend. Guthrie walked away with the overall win and now there is just four points between Guthrie and Jones for the top spot; all eyes are on these two this weekend at Desertmartin.

The Big Wheel 85cc class saw Dominic Lancett continue his battle for this year's title as he has amassed an impressive 54 point lead after two rounds, however Bobby Bruce was giving his utmost this weekend to gain those valuable points towards his championship chase. The top five spots for round two of the series went to Lancett, Bruce, Jack Galvin, Ben Kennedy and Kyle McNichol.

Going into the Brampton round the current Thor British Youth Nationals 85cc BW champion, Rossi Beard, had the overall win in the 125cc class in his sights with the aim of keeping his top spot at the head of the series' standings. Saturday saw some outstanding battles between Beard and Callum Mitchell with a race win each, while on Sunday Beard was on fire and took all three moto wins, despite Mitchell's best efforts, with an especially strong outing in the opening race of the day where Beard stretched a five second advantage over Mitchell. The top five overall went to Beard, Mitchell, Sam Nunn, Josh Peters and Drew Anderson.

The open class was equally as exciting, as going into the final moto of the weekend there was only a few points difference between Jed Etchells, who enjoyed two moto wins during the Brampton event, Howard Wainwright and Tom Grimshaw. There were certainly some edge-of-seat moments as these moto warriors fought to the final chequered flag. Etchells finished the final moto in third, which gave him the overall victory with a 4-1-1-4-3 scorecard, while Wainwright was second and Grimshaw was third. Ben Clark and Aaron-Lee Hanson rounded out the top five.

The Apico Factory Racing Holeshot awards were once again up for grabs, which were given for the second block of motos on Saturday and saw Raife Broadley, Dominic Lancett, Billy Moriarty, Joe Cadwallader and Rossi Beard receiving the awards for their classes.

Now we move onto Desertmartin, Northern Ireland for round three of the series where we look forward to some more great battles across all classes. We hope you all have a great weekend's racing.
